Michael G. Stallone joined EisnerLubin in 1986, became a partner in 1998 and has served on the firm's executive committee. When EisnerLubin became a division of WithumSmith+Brown, PC on November 1, 2011, Mike became a partner of WS+B. Mike specializes in accounting and auditing services for privately held companies and tax planning for high net worth individuals and other entities. Industries of expertise include real estate, service businesses, manufacturing and distribution.

Mike considers client engagement crucial for a successful business relationship. "I really enjoy the hands-on nature of the way we work with clients," he says. "Through the years, I've grown very close with many of my clients and have been fortunate enough to help advise them as they have grown their businesses."

Mike is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, as well as both the New York and New Jersey State Societies of Certified Public Accountants. Mike received his B.B.A. in accounting from Baruch College of the City University of New York. He divides his time between New York and New Jersey offices.

Mike enjoys exercising and loves fine wine and foods. He resides in Manalapan, New Jersey with his wife, son and daughter.
